The Birth of Jesus
In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. All went to their own towns to be registered.
Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David.

He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child.
On the Road to Bethlehem
Bethlehem, here we come!
Is there anyone here?!
NO ROOM AT THE INN
No Room!
But I do have a stable right here you are welcome to use

This will be fine. We have come a long way and we just need to rest.
While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child.

And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.
The Shepherds and the Angel
In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.

Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.
But the angel said to them, ‘Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people:
to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord.
This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.’
Do Not Be Afraid
For I bring you Tidings of Great Joy

Let’s go to Bethlehem to greet the Savior!
The Shepherds arrive in Bethlehem

So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them.

Visitors From the East
In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, ‘Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.'

All Coming Together
A shoot shall come out from the stock of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots.

The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord.

He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth;

No claymation creatures were harmed in the making of this project. Please refrain from attempting any actions you have seen in this project. These stunts were performed by professionals. All voices were imitated, and are not the actual voices of any famous people, living or dead. This is make believe, but based on a true story. Believe it or not, Mary and Joseph were not made of clay. Maybe the donkey was though.
